

Paying Creditors by Online Batch

When a creditor batch is processed it goes into the DCM until the transaction comes back from the bank. It is then processed from DCM to Bank statement screen during the importation of transactions.

If the you are manually entering transactions you will need to process the batch from the DCM to the Bank Statement screen.

For more information refer to the Training Guide - Importing Transactions or Processing from DCM